THE COURT: And the last -- I'm sure from Mr. [REDACTED] perspective, Mr. [REDACTED] motion to confirm the arbitration award as against the respondent [REDACTED].

MS. HARPER: Durable Power of Attorney.

THE COURT: Durable Power of Attorney for [REDACTED] and the last one 654191 of 2013 that motion to confirm the FINRA arbitration award which allowed Mr. [REDACTED] name to be expunged from the central data is granted.

All right. Each one of these there will be essentially a gray sheet produced, but I think before we do that we need an order confirming the award and the expunging of the name in however language you wish to use.

MR. GRAIFMAN: Do you like us to submit an order based on the last order your Honor did?

THE COURT: Yes, that would be great.

MR. GRAIFMAN: One for each through.

THE COURT: One for each.

MR. GRAIFMAN: We submit it through the E-filing system?

THE COURT: Do it through the E-filing system. Make sure I get a copy so I can sign it. I can't sign on E-file so that's what needs to be next. But I also need a copy of the minutes because what I'll do is when I give you the gray sheet confirming the award I will attach the minutes to each one of them so that will be the official statement, okay. So I'll finish it up by saying that all of these arbitrations -- these motions confirm the arbitration awards are granted in each individually and that constitutes the decision and order of the court.

MR. GRAIFMAN: Thank you, your Honor. This is Olympic season and I think you deserve a gold medal.

THE COURT: You deserve a gold medal because it was hard work. I know the judgment was a pain to do. I do think now you have something much more valuable against Mr. [REDACTED]. If somebody comes after him and say you didn't confirm the arbitration award, he would be able to go get an individual order for each one of these things. So I think it is worth the extra trouble. Thank you very much and I know it was trouble too.
